Service overview

Ageing infrastructure, rising operating costs and capacity constraints are piling pressure on businesses to upgrade their IT environments.

Cloud Direct's Azure Infrastructure Migration delivers a structured, low-risk programme that enables a shift from CapEx-heavy hosting to a predictable OpEx spend with UK-only data residency. Our end-to-end approach provides clarity, confidence, and a foundation for long-term cloud transformation.

Who is this service for?

Organisations with legacy VMware, Hyper-V, or physical environments that are seeking a secure, compliant, and future-ready Azure platform that enables ongoing innovation.

Addressing your challenges

Old infrastructure leading to increased costs, operation risk, and downtime

Upcoming hardware or licensing renewals accelerating financial pressure

Lack of migration clarity causing adoption delays and strategy stagnation

Expertise in action

From initial discovery to migration and handover, our programme covers the full migration lifecycle to enable successful, secure, and scalable Azure adoption.

What we deliver

- Initial discovery to assess dependencies, risks and cost models, and establish a baseline
- Right-sizing analysis, cost optimisation reports, and mapped change control processes
- An Azure Landing Zone designed to Microsoft best practice
- Seamless migration of Virtual Machines using proven frameworks and tooling
- Throughput assurance, rigorous testing, and validation of platform readiness

Outcomes that matter
